§ 371 (c)(1),

(2), (4) Date: Apr. 23, 2014(57) ABSTRACT

An approach is presented for performing a transaction via a sponsor account. The transaction manager receives a request to sponsor payment for one or more client accounts by a sponsor account. Further, the transaction manager determines payment information associated with the sponsor account. Then, the transaction manager determines to associate the payment information with the one or more client accounts.
